Jerome Kohlberg, an architect of the leveraged buyout and co-founder of private-equity giant KKR & Co., has died. He was 90.

Mr. Kohlberg died at his Martha's Vineyard home on Thursday after a long battle with cancer, according to Kohlberg & Co., the firm he founded after he left KKR in 1987.

"Jerry led an amazing life and leaves a tremendous legacy in business, philanthropy and family," Samuel P. Frieder, Kohlberg & Co.'s managing partner, said in a note to the firm's investors on Friday.

Mr. Kohlberg founded Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co. in 1976 with Henry Kravis and George Roberts. The three men, who worked together in Bear, Stearns & Co.'s corporate-finance division, launched the firm with just $120,000 in capital, according to the book "Merchants of Debt: KKR and the Mortgaging of American Business," by former Wall Street Journal reporter George Anders.
